

March 2011 – Transferee Survey Feedback

- My Counseling team has been amazing to work with. They knew from the beginning I needed to find a house quick and helped push through everything I needed to do it. I was helped through a really tough moment recently where I literally sat on the phone and cried because I was so frustrated with the way the relocation was going. I couldn't ask for two better people to be helping me through this process.
- My counseling team has always been ready to help when needed. I have no issues with their service.
- My counseling team always gets back to me with any questions I have in a very timely manner. They are also always very courteous.
- The WHR group have really helped me through this stressful time. I'm very thankful!
- Very helpful during offers and house hunting trips that usually happen over the weekend!
- My counseling team has stayed very connected to me throughout this process and have been very responsive to my inquiries
- My counselor has been the best relocation contact. He is prompt and courteous and always very helpful. We appreciate him very much.
- My counselor has been wonderful. She is kind, considerate, responsive, and prompt in getting me what I need. I could not ask for a better relo counselor.
- Feel like all parties have my best interest in mind, thanks!
- This was the first time I bought a home and SimpleMove made this process very seamless. WHR was great to work with and my counselor was very responsive and knowledgeable. Also, my real estate agent was awesome. He was very friendly, knowledgeable and great to work with. I would recommend SimpleMove to anyone who is buying or selling a home.
