

November 2011 – Transferee Survey Feedback

My husband and I recently relocated to the Washington DC area, and my WHR counseling team played a major role in managing our relocation. They did so with great care, thoughtfulness, skill and ease. They did an absolutely outstanding job in every aspect related to our relocation. They assisted us in many ways and kept us apprised of the many issues concerning the sale of our house in Texas. Both team members should be recognized for the outstanding support they provided. Words cannot adequately express our gratitude for the kindness they continually expressed to us and the professionalism they demonstrated in assisting us. Great job—great team! Thanks so very much.

I'm very pleased with the service and overall working situation I experienced with team WHR. They were very professional, and understanding that I had never used a relocation firm to sell a home. They talked me through new issues and kept me supplied with updates, without burning up the phone line or email. They both did an outstanding job working with me.

I've concluded the buyout process on my home. Given the market conditions, it would have been very difficult to sell my home. Thanks for everything. You have been super in guiding us through the process.
