to Ask an Expert!

To help clients stay ahead of the curve, WHR turned towards a global pricing database to understand the true cost of living. The database is comprised of 8.8 million price submissions from over 11,000 cities globally.

The Report allows businesses to "check the pulse" of their allowances and per diems. If global mobility teams find that the amounts offered to their employees are lower than the country average, contact WHR today for a free consultation, including a breakdown of the benchmark report by city.

Global mobility teams may use this Report, which covers 99 countries, to benchmark the following:

- Monthly housing allowances for assignments & commuters,
- Monthly utilities allowances for assignments & commuters,
- Monthly transportation allowances for assignments & commuters,
- Transportation per diems for preview and home finding trips, and
- Meal per diems for preview and home finding trips.
